PLAN ENCAMPMENT

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA VETERANS LOOK FORWARD TO SUMMER MEETING

The Council of the Southern California Veterans' Association met Friday at Patriotic Hall, South Figueroa street, Los Angeles, and made plans for the annual encampment. Comrade T. M. Barrett, Commander of the Association, presided at the meeting. There was a splendid attendance of members of the Council and harmony and good feeling prevailed throughout the session. A proposition was submitted by the Methodist Board for the use of the camp grounds at Huntington Beach which the association has used for a number of years. The proposition was accepted and the encampment will be held at the same place this year. The opening date is set for July 29th and the camp will be named for a former commander, Jason J. Shepard.

Commander Barrett announces that new features will be introduced this year that will make the program more interesting and the encampment of more benefit to the veterans than ever before.

Glendale is well represented in this association, as Rev. C. R. Norton is chaplain and Major J. J. Weiler, adjutant, both of these comrades being present at Friday's meeting.

POOR LUCK

Frank Echols and Harry Hall, who made a flying trip to the Ventura River to try their luck as fishermen, got back yesterday, rather dissatisfied with their experience and out of luck. For some unexplained reason it was an off day and few fish were to be had. Could they have remained a day or two longer the story would have been different as it takes a little time for a fisherman to get the lay of the land and choose his location. It is the great season for catching steelheads as they go up the river to spawn and because the water is shallow get caught on the rocks and are unable to make their objective, therefore fishermen are freely allowed to cast their lines. Mr. Echols expects that there will be crowds of sportsmen there today and tomorrow.

DANCE AND CARD PARTY

A dance and card party given by Mrs. Edward Dale and Miss Jane Dale at the home of Mrs. Dale at 361 West Salem, Friday evening, furnished delightful entertainment to all who participated. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Don Gates and Fred Gates of South Pasadena, Mr. Britt and daughter, Ruth Britt, of Los Angeles, Robert Crawley, Booth Franklin, Mrs. Mabel F. Ocker, Miss Ruth Meyer, Harold McElroy, Ruby Farnsworth, Misses Hazel, Elsie and Edith Tyler, Dick Adair, Mrs. Wade, Sr., and Wade Dale. Pink sweet peas were effectively employed in the floral decorations and refreshments were served in buffet style.

FOR PARENTS

SUPT. WHITE SUBMITS INFORMATION REGARDING SECOND TERM

The second term of school will open on Monday, March 3, 1919. It is very important that every child should enter school on the first day and should thereafter be regular and punctual in his attendance. Any absence may be a serious menace to the child's standing in his classes. This is especially true this year because of the shorter term.

School Age

The legal age for entering school is six years. However, an allowance of three months is made. This means that in order to enter the first grade a child would have to be six on or before June 3, 1919. No beginner will be admitted after the close of the first month of the term.

Kindergartens

Kindergartens will be opened at the Columbus Ave., Colorado Blvd. and Broadway Schools. Children of Kindergarten age residing in the Central Ave. District will attend the Columbus Ave. School. The law states the kindergarten age to be from four and one-half to six years. This law is interpreted to mean that the child will have to be four and a half before the end of the third month of school, i. e., in this case on or before June 3, 1919. No allowance is made for over age. Any child who is six years old or older on the day the term begins will not be admitted to the kindergarten. Such child may, of course, enter school if the parents so desire. In order that the parent may have a choice between the kindergarten and

THE NEW COLORS

PRETTY PRESENTATION CEREMONIAL STAGED AT GLENDALE UNION HIGH

The presentation of the colors to Glendale High battalion, yesterday forenoon, was a pretty ceremonial and a patriotic exercise somewhat different from the ordinary Washington's Birthday observance. The new flag is the regulation army flag of heavy silk with embroidered stars, and edged with gold fringe. It is a beautiful "Old Glory" and the first "colors" that the battalion has possessed. It came to the organization as the gift of the Board of Trustees, which was represented at the ceremonial by its secretary, Dr. A. L. Bryant.

The meeting, which was held in the auditorium of the High School, during the last period, was conducted by Commander Normal C. Hayhurst, with Dr. Bryant, Principal George U. Moyse and E. K. Barnes sharing the platform with him. After the assembly had been called to order there was the usual salute to the school flag borne by Miss Ruth Ryan, followed by a war song, "The Long, Long Trail."

Commander Hayhurst then introduced Lieut. Elmer C. Richardson, one of the Glendale High instructors who entered army service in November, 1917, and returned to the school about two weeks ago. After training at Berkeley and North Island he was sent to Richfield, Tex., where he was held as an instructor in flying

A TRAGIC DEATH

DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. R. L. MILLIGAN SUICIDES IN FIT OF INSANITY

Details of a tragedy which has come into the life of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Milligan of 114 East Park Avenue, this city, are told in a letter written by Mrs. Milligan to a Glendale friend, which has been brought to the Evening news with a request for its publication. Some time ago Mr. and Mrs. Milligan were summoned to Kansas City by a telegram which announced the death of their daughter, Mrs. Gladys Funk. The letter gives the particulars of her death, which Mrs. Milligan wishes her friends to know that she may be spared the distress of telling them or of talking of her sorrow after her return:

Kansas City, Feb. 13, 1919.

Mrs. Lena Roberts.

My Dear Friend: I am going to write you the saddest letter you have ever received or probably ever will receive. It is to tell you that my darling, in a temporary fit of insanity, committed suicide by shooting

THE COMMUNITY SING

Attendance on the Community Sing Thursday evening was large, and great enthusiasm prevailed. A most encouraging feature of these gatherings is the increasingly large number of men coming out to enjoy them. The program was varied last night, including "Hail, Columbia!" as one of the patriotic selections, the "Boola Song" and "Good-Night, Ladies," from the list of college ditties, "Last Night," from songs of sentiment, and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," from the selection of hymns.

Chairman Mitchell announced that there would be no sing for two weeks because next Thursday evening the auditorium will be needed for commencement exercises.

Announcement was also made that four weeks hence, or March 20th, judges will be present to pass upon the work, and singers from Hollywood.

A CONTEMPTIBLE THEFT

Cerritos School has again been robbed of its victrola and records. Two years ago it experienced a similar loss which was made good by the Parent-Teacher Association of the school. A very nice machine was purchased and about forty records have been accumulated to illustrate some special branch of school work. They were in great variety, ranging from nursery rhymes and songs to band records, and will be much missed. A music cabinet was also taken, the whole representing a value of about $100.

The robbery is believed to have occurred about 6:00 o'clock Tuesday evening and two men who drove a Saxon car are suspected, though the identity of the men does not seem to be known. They "jimmied" a window to effect an entrance and it is supposed took the victrola out through an office window.

PEACE CONFERENCE TO BE SPEEDED UP

COMMITTEES TO BE ORDERED TO REPORT BY MARCH 8 AND ARMISTICE TERMS READ TODAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Feb. 22.—Plans to speed up the peace conference, which the supreme war council is expected to adopt soon, will direct all special committees to submit reports by March 8.

The new armistice terms will be read at this afternoon's session of the war council.

MUNICH IN THROES OF CIVIL WAR

MOBS PLUNDER STORES AND HOMES, AND SPARTACAN FORCES PATROL STREETS IN ARMED AUTOS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Copenhagen, Feb. 22.—Civil war has broken out in Munich, starting at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The church bells rang at that hour and ten thousand workmen marched from the suburbs into the city. Violent fighting followed. Mobs plundered shops and homes, and hundreds of civilians fled the city. Spartacan forces seized the railway station.

Latest reports said that the workmen had proclaimed a dictatorship and Spartacan forces were patrolling the streets in armed automobiles. Many anarchists are said to have joined the Spartacides.

GERMANY'S NEW REVOLUTION BEGINS

GOVERNMENT TO USE ALL FORCES AGAINST SPARTACIDES TO CRUSH TERRORISM EVERYWHERE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Weimar, Germany, Feb. 22.—Chancellor Scheidemann wired today that the assassination of Premier Eisner and Herr Auer, acting minister of war of Bavaria, left Munich in control of the Spartacides, and that relentless warfare will be waged against the radicals. He said the government has ordered that every force at its command be used against the Spartacides and that the government proposes to crush terrorism everywhere.

The cabinet feels that the new revolution has actually begun.

CLEMENCEAU'S EARLY RECOVERY PREDICTED

PAIN FROM WOUND HAS DISAPPEARED, EATS HEARTILY, SLEEPS WELL—WILL RESUME DUTIES MONDAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Feb. 22.—It was announced today that Premier Clemenceau will be able to resume his duties as chairman of the peace conference Monday, if he continues improving at the present rate. He had a slight rise in temperature this morning, but this was attributed to his exertions yesterday. Clemenceau eats heartily and the pain from the wound has entirely disappeared. He slept last night sitting in a chair.

Eye-witnesses of the shooting denied today the reports current in the United States that Clemenceau had grappled with his assailant. Although Cotin, who fired the shot, stoutly maintained he acted on his own responsibility, the French authorities today continued seeking a clew to an anarchist plot and have queestioned almost every known anarchist in Paris and many other towns.

SECRETARY DANIELS TELEPHONES PRESIDENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

The George Washington is now 700 miles off shore.

A PAN-AMERICAN COURT

SUGGESTED BY LORD CECIL AS PART OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS PLAN TO MAINTAIN TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, Feb. 22.—The Evening News today said that Latin-American representatives asked the British peace delegates what effect the league of nations would have on the Monroe Doctrine. The paper said Lord Cecil replied that the Monroe Doctrine had always worked satisfactorily, and that the league could appoint the American nations to execute its principles in maintaining territorial integrity of American countries. He also said he believed a pan-American court should be formed as part of this plan.

CONGRESS GUARANTEES $2.26 WHEAT

Washington, Feb. 22.—The House today passed the bill guaranteeing a price of $2.26 for wheat. It gives the President power to buy or sell wheat through any agency he sees fit to create.

VISIT KAISER'S PALACE

WILL RICHARDSON WRITES OF PATROLLING BANKS OF RHINE

Recent letters from E. Will Richardson, who is a Military Policeman with the Army of Occupation in Germany to members of his family, tell of a visit to the former Kaiser's castle on the Rhine. They were taken through the castle by a guide. He describes the beautiful frescoes on the walls both inside and out and the wonderful furnishings. One room is filled with different types of armor. He wore felt slippers over his shoes so as not to scar the inlaid wood floor. The castle was built in the 12th century and enlarged in 1838.

Will's duties consist of patrolling the banks of the Rhine for a distance each day, on horseback. The horses being used by the M. P. are quartered in the stables belonging to the ex-Kaiser at Coblenz.

On January 6th he writes: "I hear that the 91st Division is coming this way and is at Arlon, Belgium. Many of the cars and motorcycles of the 91st of Camp Lewis are in town so we are expecting to be relieved soon as other armies are ready to come up and take our place. If we go back through France we may turn in our horses, but if not I will have the pleasure of riding from the Rhine to a seaport in France or part of the way. There has not been much rain of late which has been fortunate for us on our rides in the country. 'We have only the small overseas cap that

MUSIC SECTION MEETS

ENJOYS RARE TREAT IN SPECIAL INTERPRETATIONS OF CLASSICAL MUSIC

One of the most enjoyable meetings the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club has held this year, took place Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson on Central avenue and Riverdale Drive. An altogether delightful program had been arranged which was duly enjoyed by about thirty-five members and friends. It was Belgian Babies' Day and nearly all the guests brought bundles of clothing.

Miss Mason, of Los Angeles, who was one of the artists captivated her audience. She excels in interpretation and in connection with rendition gave an outline of each selection and the thought the composer endeavored to express. "The Lark" was an especially beautiful number in which the audience could fancy they heard the rustling of the trees preceding the song of the lark. Rarely has the section enjoyed a program more stimulating to the imagination.

Interpretive ability was also conspicuously displayed in the contribution of Miss Marlenee, who gave two fine piano numbers.

Miss Hellyer, who has a rich mezzo-soprano, sang three selections which were warmly encored and much enjoyed.

Following the program, ice-cream and home-made cake were served by Mrs. Colin Cable and Mrs. Cassell, the proceeds, which amounted to something less than $6.00, going to the Belgian Baby Fund.

SOLDIERS' SOCIAL

The party given by the young people of the church societies of Glendale and surrounding communities at the First Methodist Church in this city Friday evening to welcome returned soldiers, was an entirely informal, but very delightful affair. Invitations were sent to more than one hundred men in khaki who are now ready to resume civilian life and a large proportion of them responded. The eve of Washington's Birthday was a fitting time for such a gathering and flags were much in evidence in the decoration of the social hall where the party took place. Every guest was decorated with a red hatchet, and all were tagged for the guessing contests and games which constituted the chief diversions of the evening though there was music and a fine address of appreciation and greeting by Dr. Charles H. Scott, pastor of the church in which the entertainment took place.

Refreshments were served and it was an altogether social, get-together affair calculated to make the boys realize how their friends rejoice over their return.

PALACE GRAND PICTURES

Saturday Fred Stone will be introduced in a most entertaining story of circus life, entitled, "Under the Top," and there will also be comedy numbers which will entertain old and young.

HALIFAX TO FRONT LINE

BROTHER OF REV. CLIFFORD COLE DESCRIBES JOURNEY OF 91ST, WAR EXPERIENCE

To Rev. Clifford Cole, pastor of the Central Christian Church of this city, the Evening News is indebted for the following letter giving interesting details of the experience of the 91st Division. The letter was written by his brother, Private Ben O. Cole, of Co. H, 363d Infantry:

"St. Cyr La Rosiere, France,
"Jan. 12, 1919.

"Dear Home Folks:—

"Have left Belgium as you can see. There were only two divisions of we Americans in Belgium—the 91st and the 37th. We were also supported by the artillery of the 28th Division. We came into Belgium in the latter days of October. We came out 28th of December, three days on freight train to this little town southwest of Paris—St. Cyr la Rosiere. Have been here two weeks awaiting a chance to get in line for 'Over There.' St. Cyr la Rosiere is but a small place. A division is given a certain area to billet in and all towns, big and small, are usually utilized. It has been our lot to draw always a small place that will accommodate one or two companies, so have not seen as yet a great many interesting sights that most of the large cities afford. Am more seriously interested right now, however, in some of the interesting things and certain large cities in the United States. There is a certain interesting place on Boyle Heights, in Los Angeles, Cal., that I particularly care to see, 'tout suite,' as we say in France, which is synonymous to 'right away or dam quick,' and other words to that effect. You see I'm getting along famously with my French. Have added at last a dozen words to my vocab. since I came. Got along fine in Belgium as the talk there is mostly Flemish, a mixture of French, German and some words that are very much like English. Then the British, Canadians and Australians have been there through the war and they've learned a lot of English.

SCHOOL DEBATING NEWS

Prof. W. D. Root, who has charge of the debates in Glendale Union High, was called to Jefferson High Friday evening to act as judge in a debate between the teams of that school and Whittier High, which are members of the Southern Debating League. The question to be debated was: "Resolved, That the President's Cabinet Should Have a Voice in Both Houses of Congress Without a Vote."

Glendale High, which is in the Southwestern League, will have a debate April 4th on the general question of "Immigration." The limited question has not yet been assigned. There has been an increase of students in the debating department who are now being tried out, and the best four will represent the school in the coming contest.

SCHOOL TAXATION

SUPERINTENDENT R. D. WHITE CALLS ATTENTION TO BILL NOT ENTITLED TO SUPPORT

Supt. Richardson D. White is warning citizens who are interested in school matters that Senate Bill 525 and Assembly Bill 786 are exactly the same measure as Assembly Bill 1013 passed by the last legislature and overwhelmingly defeated by a referendum vote at the polls where it was turned down by the people. It has been simply reintroduced in another effort to put it over should the people chance to be napping. The bill forbade an increase in taxation for school purposes of more than 5 per cent. in any one year over the tax of the previous year. It sounded reasonable, but it sometimes worked injustice. It might happen, as it has happened in the beach towns since ship-building was inaugurated on a large scale, that school attendance would increase 25 per cent. in a single year. With the tax increase limited to 5 per cent. the schools would be seriously crippled for lack of funds to providing schooling for so many children. The system would be simply demoralized under such a condition. In the meantime an initiative measure has been prepared as a substitute which limits the increase in taxation to five per cent. on the average daily attendance, which is regarded as a wise limitation of possible reckless extravagance. Mr. White hopes no one will be deceived about Senate Bill 525 and Assembly Bill 786.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1919

ONLY ONE HUNDRED FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Today being the anniversary of the birth of George Washington, the Father of Our Country, it is appropriate for us as a people to call to mind that only 145 years ago a war was being waged by which the United Colonies became free and independent States. Now today, while we are able to wield an influence over the entire world, it behooves us to look after the interests of our own people—the people who have declared their intentions to support the Constitution of the United States. Let it be our policy to look after the interests of the United States first, and interfere as little as possible with the affairs of foreign nations. May we see to it that all people who enjoy the protection they get under the folds of the United States flag are loyal to our country, and that their acts be the acts of true American citizens.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WAR SAVING QUOTA

Southern California's war saving quota for 1919, it is announced by State Director G. A. Davidson, will approximate a total of $17,000,000, as against $21,981,120 assigned to this district last year.

This $17,000,000 to be raised in Southern California by the sale of war savings stamps and certificates this year will be pro-rated among the nine southern counties. While definite figures are not yet available, it is estimated that Los Angeles city and county will be given a quota for 1919 of an approximate $12,000,000, or about three million dollars less than that for last year, with other counties having a proportionate amount.

The treasury department, in the campaign for 1919, has planned for monthly quotas, each of which will be for an increased amount, with December as the maximum quota for the year.

Following are the monthly quotas assigned by the government to the Twelfth Federal Reserve District, of which James K. Lynch is governor:

January, $4,200,000; February, $4,800,000; March, $5,400,000; April, $6,600,000; May, $6,600,000; June, $7,200,000; July, $7,800,000; August, $8,400,000; September, $9,600,000; October, $10,800,000; November, $12,000,000; December, $13,200,000. This gives a total of $96,000,000 for the Twelfth Federal Reserve District, while the aggregate for the entire country is $1,600,000,000.

The club is in a prosperous condition, having increased in membership to 175 members.

A few of the prominent riflemen who will take part in the shoot are: Mayor Woodman, James M. Paul, champion rifle shot of El Paso, Texas, Prof. Wm. G. Bell of Occidental College, Ned Cutting, Thaxter, W. A. Rathbun, W. L. Boxall, Dr. Royce and others.

instead of being permitted to go across. The lieutenant made a fine, though brief, talk, telling the men who were assembled in the center of the auditorium in a space reserved for them, something of his army experiences and the ideals of patriotism which had grown up in his mind as a result of that service.

Cecilia Lyons, dressed to represent Columbia, attended by Alberta Stoddard and Ruth Ryan, garbed in white, then bore the colors to the platform, presenting them to Miss Irene Mueller, art instructor, who planned the ceremonial and who has so often served in flag presentations that she is sometimes called "The flag lady" by her friends. With an appropriate little speech Miss Mueller accepted the flag and in turn presented it to Commandant Hayhurst. Accepting the flag at her hands on behalf of the battalion, the Commandant thanked the Board of Trustees as represented by Dr. Bryant, and then presented it to the Color Guard, Howard Thompson, Color Sergeant, who was attended by Tom McIvor and Clifford Kenworthy. The Commandant then advanced the Color Guard to the front of the platform and the battalion came to salute, pledging allegiance to the flag. All then joined in the singing of "Star-Spangled Banner" and the Color Guard and Columbia and attendants left the platform.

Commandant Hayhurst then called upon Dr. Bryant who in addition to his interest as a trustee felt a special interest in the ceremonial owing to the fact that he has two boys in the battalion. He responded with a little talk in which he referred to the high ideals with which our boys had responded to the call to the colors, ideals which had contributed in no small degree to their success. Now that peace has come he urged them to cling to those ideals and lead clean lives worthy of such a flag and to serve their country in civic life as loyally as on the battle field.

Mr. Barnes, who has shown a practical working interest in the military department since its inception, going so far as to transport and loan the battalion the guns used by the Home Guard with which he is connected before the cadets secured their own guns, and giving other evidences of friendliness, was then called upon for a speech and responded along lines similar to those voiced by Dr. Bryant.

Principal Moyse was then requested to say a few words and addressed by the Commandant as his commanding officer. Replying in like vein, Mr. Moyse commended Mr. Hayhurst for his soldierly qualities.

That ended the program, but before the battalion disbanded a panorama view of it was taken out on the campus with the new flag. The photograph will be a very nice record of the event and will measure eight by 36 inches.

all members of the A. E. F. wear, with an overcoat or raincoat." He describes the insignia of the army of occupation as a large A inside a circle.

Speaking of the Y. M. C. A. and the criticisms made of their work, he says: "The Y. M. C. A. are giving us some good entertainments now since the war is over, but before that I can say nothing, for even though I was constantly out on the main highways to the front, they never were around, and everything they had they wanted three prices for." In another letter, he says: "The Y. M. C. A. has a black eye with the soldiers and they don't know how they are going to account for many things they neglected doing when the war was going on when we needed their help so badly." And, again, "I offered a fellow $1.00 for an old Saturday Evening Post last October so you may be sure that I wasn't near any Y. M. C. A. and they weren't coming up to take a chance on being hit, but the fellow wouldn't sell the magazine."

In a later letter, he writes: "Everything looks as if we might stay here in Germany for the next six months. You must remember that when we got over, 100 men left the division and went to the C. R. A. (French) and then on to the first army and then into Germany with the third army. Murray Durham is with the 91st Division and I haven't seen him nor any of the outfits except the older divisions that we went up with."

S. C. Crump of San Jose is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Phebe Crump, of 341 Hawthorne street. He expects to be here for several weeks.

Lieut. Eugene H. Imler arrived Friday from Camp Humphries, surprising his family, who did not expect him until today.

Mrs. F. W. Griffin, who has been stopping at the Glendale Sanitarium, has rented the home of Mrs. H. R. Gibbs, 137 S. Central avenue, through the J. F. Chandler agency.

Mrs. Godfrey Parker, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, 220 West Chestnut, has gone to Santa Monica to spend a few months. Mrs. Parker is staying at the McLeod Apartments, Ocean Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal S. Nicholson, of East Acacia, are much elated over the arrival of a little daughter in their home Thursday. Their only other child is a son. No name has yet been selected for the baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Berges, who are new comers from Fresno, have purchased the F. D. Silvius home at 356 West Colorado street. They are greatly delighted with Glendale and think they will enjoy residence here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Farnsworth are returning to their home at 127 North Central, which has been rented for some time. Their daughter, Ruby, who has been living with her sister, Mrs. Torrey, will be with them.

Mrs. M. F. English, of Chicago, Illinois, is in Glendale for a visit with her son, John H. English, and family, of 324 West Lexington Drive. Mrs. English will remain for an indefinite stay and may decide to make her home in Glendale.

Two new automobile agents are establishing themselves in Glendale. Clarence Redman, who resides on West Harvard street, is handling the "Nash," made by the Jeffries Company, and Leon J. Robinson is representing the Essex, Hudson and Maxwell.

The U. and I. Club, made up of ladies who reside in the southern part of Glendale, will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. D. Cross, on Mira Loma avenue. It will be the first meeting in several months and members are looking forward to it.

Mrs. Della Chapman, of 337 W. Harvard, was greatly surprised Thursday afternoon when her brother, Mr. Glen Heminger, of San Diego, arrived home from his two years' service in the navy. Mr. Heminger made seven trips to France. He was on the U. S. S. Fredrick and was captain of the gun-crew.

Members of the senior class of Glendale Union High are working on a dramatization of their class prophecy, which was written by Irma Patterson and Don Wyman. Rehearsals are in progress and it promises to be a very clever little skit. Miss Terry, the dramatic teacher, is a fine coach and if the players follow her instructions and suggestions it will certainly be good.

It has been a long time since Glendale had an apron sale, but the lack is going to be met Saturday when the ladies of the Holy Family Catholic Church will have one in connection with a Colonial party in celebration of Washington's Birthday. No admission will be charged in the afternoon, but in the evening when a fine special program will be given, there will be an admission fee of 25 cents. The affairs given by these ladies are always a great success and this one will be no exception.

Charles C. Champlin, a Y. M. C. A. worker at San Pedro, who has been detailed to accompany six hundred men who have been demobilized from the navy and are being sent home to southern states, was in Glendale yesterday and called on his old friend, W. D. Root, at Glendale Union High. The two men were classmates in Berkeley and afterwards taught in Japan. They have always been close friends. Mr. Champlin leaves today and will accompany the men as far as El Paso. From there they will scatter to their homes in Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM AT CERRITOS SCHOOL

A pretty patriotic program was given on the campus of the Cerritos School ground Friday morning. There was a grand march of the children of the school, carrying flags, led by the little drummer, Landon Haynes. The "salute to the flag" and "retreat" were led by Robert Searle, of the Boy Scouts.

Mr. Harwood, principal of the school, made an excellent ten-minute talk on Patriotism and the lessons to be learned from the life of Washington, the first grade sang a "Soldier Boy" song, the third grade sang a "Washington Song," Mrs. Eustace B. Moore, chairman of patriotism of the P.-T. A. Federation, read "The American Flag" to the children, and to close the program, all united in the singing of "America."

PALESTINE PAGEANT

Dr. Allen Moore, one of the world's best informed authorities on The Holy Land, is coming to Glendale with his Pageant of Palestine. New scenes in the Pageant will be presented each night for a week beginning next Wednesday, at the First Methodist Church.

Dr. Moore carries with him a large assortment of costumes representing the people and customs of the Holy Land, and miniatures of the historic buildings of the land.

The Southern California Sunday School Association has brought Dr. Moore's Pageant to the State, and is presenting it for its religious educational value. It has been given recently in Los Angeles, Pasadena and Long Beach, before large audiences of church workers.

The Pageant and lectures will be given without charging admission, but will be supported by public offerings.

SUNLAND AND TUJUNGA REPRESENTED

Quite a group of people from Sunland and Tujunga were in attendance on the Community Sing Thursday evening and one of the most interested of the group was Rev. H. W. Weiman, who has joined the organization. He was accompanied by his son, John Weiman, better known as "Tubby Weiman," captain of the Oxy Football Team. He has recently been mustered out of army service and has just got home from a Virginia camp.

Dr. and Mrs. Buck, of Tujunga, and Mrs. Tomasson, an accomplished musician and graduate of a London conservatory, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley, of this city, to the Community Sing at Hollywood last Tuesday evening. Mr. Rowley reports the greatest enthusiasm animating that organization which numbers many fine male singers. In view of the fact that a contest between the two organizations is scheduled for March 20th, Mr. Rowley is warning the Glendale singers that they will have to work if they are to hold their own with the chorus of the neighboring community. He was much impressed with its excellence.

ACACIA MOTHERS' CLUB

A true mother is worthy of every reverence and consideration. A true mother will always place the welfare of her child ahead of her own. A proof of this statement was shown when so many mothers came out to attend the Mothers' Club Friday afternoon, Feb. 21st, at the Acacia St. School.

The teachers, Miss Mae Cornwell and Miss White, were pleased to greet the many new parents that came to join the club.

Mr. Richardson D. White gave a splendid talk on laws that are about to be passed by the State Legislature pertaining to our schools which, if passed, will be a great benefit to the school system.

Mrs. E. B. Moore, Chairman of Patriotism of the Cerritos School, was a visitor and gave the Flag Salute.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames Glassburn, Preston, Fox and Curtis.

The officers this year are Mrs. Edward Strong, president; Mrs. Thos. B. Curtis, vice-president; Mrs. Will Peterson, secretary; Mrs. Irving Oliver, treasurer.

DES MOINES FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Suel Spaulding of Brand boulevard and Park avenue entertained Thursday with a pretty luncheon for old friends from Des Moines, Iowa. It was in fact a reunion of friends who knew each other well in times gone by in that city. Her guest list included Mrs. J. F. Thomas, of Des Moines, her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo O'Flaharty, who are spending the winter in Venice, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Horn of Hollywood.

DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Sunday School workers from the churches of Glendale, Eagle Rock and the San Fernando Valley will convene next Friday morning and afternoon at the First Methodist Church. A strong program is in charge of Dr. Phillipps, General Secretary of the Southern California Sunday School Association.

A TRAGIC DEATH

herself in the heart, dying instantly. She had seemed all right when her husband left home on his mail run. On coming home, he did not see her, but thought she was at the conservatory, and did not look for her. On going to the bathroom he saw her feet just past the bed, and supposing she was hiding from him, ran in and found her cold in death. It was such a shock that when he did make a sound no one could hear him. He was so completely crazed he could not call any one's name, but clung to the body, kissing and emploring her to speak to him. As you know, she was an unusually talented musician, and told a friend just the week before that she could not sleep for weeks, but would begin to practice in the evening and lots of times when she turned the light out would find it was daylight. Then she would go to her studio and give the most wonderful lessons. Musicians say the break had to come, and this it has done. There is no doubt as to her mental condition, for her friends can look back now and remember things that were not right. She had a most devoted husband, who is nearly crazy. She had a lovely home, well furnished, and her own auto, and she seemed happy.

Dear friend, this has nearly unbalanced my mind, but I have held myself up for her dear husband's sake, and now I wish you would do me a favor. Please take this to the Glendale News and ask them to put in as much as they see fit and ask our friends to please not talk to us when we come home of this terrible horror, for I could not bear it. A hand-clasp will mean more than words, for I have prayed as I never prayed before to keep calm for her dear companion's sake, and the strain is telling on me. Your broken-hearted friend,

MARY MILLIGAN.

BALLOON CIRCUS

For the first time in history, the public will be permitted to see the actual operations of the observation branch of the United States army. The government balloon school, at Arcadia, is going to stage a great aerial circus this afternoon, February 22d, Washington's birthday, under the auspices of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and the receipts will go to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Employment Service.

Airships, balloons, parachute jumping and especially the part the balloons played in the war will be demonstrated by the military men, under the direction of Lieut.-Col. Mygatt, commandant of the balloon school.

Preparations are being made for a crowd of 50,000, as the occasion will be the first when persons outside of this branch of army service will be permitted to obtain an intimate glimpse of Uncle Sam's war aerial activities.

the school, the child must be between five years and nine months and six years' old on the day the term begins.

Parents are advised not to send their children to kindergarten until they are at least four years and nine months' old for the following reasons: First, we have a kindergarten course of only one year and if a child finishes that before he has attained to school age he will either have to drop out for a half year or take the same work over again in the kindergarten. Second, a child of five will get much more out of the kindergarten work than a child of four and a half.

Superintendent's Office Hours

For any further information call up the Superintendent's office between the hours of nine and four except on Saturdays and Sundays. Telephone Glendale 593.

Districts

Parents are urged to study the district lines as given below and to send their children to the school in whose district they reside, on the first day of the term. Please note carefully also the grades that each school will enroll. These district lines are subject to change either for a whole school or for separate grades if the first day's enrollment shows such a change to be necessary.

Intermediate School

All seventh and eighth grade pupils in the Glendale City District except those in the Cerritos Ave. District, will attend the Intermediate School.

Doran Street School

Grades B1, A1, B2, A2, B3, A3. The district of this school is that part of the Glendale City School District enclosed by the following described line:

Starting at the intersection of Brand boulevard and California avenue, the line runs east on California to Isabel, south on Isabel to Broadway, east on Broadway to Glendale avenue, north on Glendale avenue to Wilson avenue, east on Wilson to Cedar street, north on Cedar to Oakwood avenue, west on Oakwood to the easterly prolongation of Burchett street, west on said prolongation to Brand boulevard, south on Brand to California.

Children of the first three grades from Verdugo Canyon will also attend this school.

All district lines coincide with the middle of the street except on Cedar street, where both sides of the street will be included in this district. (Continued from Page 1)

But French is mostly all Dutch to me.

"Have forgotten almost all about dollars and cents and we all now talk in francs, centimes (10 centimes is a large copper called a sous or soo and is the same as an English penny, and 5 cents to an English half-penny. A 5 franc piece is the size of a dollar and about the same value. Got hold of a little German money in Belgium.

"Well, if you'll all kindly give me your attention I'll now fill in some of the 'blank files' in my series of letters and tell you a great many things that you probably haven't heard about. The ladies may keep their hats on and the gentlemen will be permitted to smoke if they wish.

"We left Camp Merritt, near N. Y., after dark the 5th day of July, supposedly to embark down the Hudson and out to sea, but quietly took a train in another direction, arriving in Philadelphia the next morning and marched down to the docks on the Delaware River and boarded a certain improvised transport that had been a freighter, called the 'City of Cairo (Well, I'll never forget her. We slept 'tween' decks in canvas hammocks slung in like sardines, and ate British rations. On the whole though I had a fairly good voyage).

"We held up in the bay at the mouth of the river the following night on account of sub scares, then stood out to sea early next morning and evaded said U-boats, then headed north for Halifax.

"We arrived in Halifax the third day out and remained in their big fine harbor for our fleet to assemble. Large liners and big merchant ships began to arrive till we were some 18 or 20 ships, including a ship load or two of Canadian troops—raw like us. Saw the results of the terrible explosion disaster in Halifax. Several city blocks along the water front on both sides were in ruin.

"One fine day we started across the Atlantic and made an impressive sight—especially for a landsman. Next to the last day out we were met by our convoy of sub-chasers and we were glad to see them arrive. They are speedy little boats and took good care of us. Had a couple of brushes with subs and saw my first cannon fire in real action. Arrived safely in English Channel, then up the Thames to the suburban docks of London, called Tilbury docks. Took dinky little English trains to Winchester where we stayed at English 'rest' camp for three days. Then took more dinky English trains to Southampton. Then boarded a large liner and across the Channel (all night's rough ride) to Cherbourg, France. Marched then four miles to another one of those lovely English 'rest' camps where we stayed three days more, then back to Cherbourg and took lovely French freight cars, that are marked '40 Hommes or 10 Vaux' (40 men or 10 horses) for three days and nights through the suburbs of Paris, to a small place southeast of Paris, called Ageville; 18 kilometers from railroad. We stayed there five weeks training for the big game, then one fine day with all equipments on board hiked about 24 kilos to a certain railhead and embarked via freight a couple of days' ride toward the front. After bivouacing about a few days finally landed at St. Germain (once in the hands of the Huns) and were in reserve in the famous St. Mihiel Drive. Fortunately our support was not needed so we were suddenly transferred via French trucks up through Bar le duc to Condee from where we marched towards Verdun. They manouvered us around, camping in the woods for concealment and marching by night, to a point up back of the lines, in such a clever manner as to completely fool the enemy, to French dugouts, and where we came under shell fire for the first time. Were there fifteen days or so at strong, hill-fortified trenches covered with scattering pines and in the edge of the Argonne forest. Then one fine morning after a five hour barrage we picked our way across about a half a mile of barbed wire tangled with four years' growth of thicket and across a creek towards the strongest German position on the west front, in a dense fog. In half an hour saw my first shedding of blood twixt we-uns and they-uns. Saw a young lad who lived in Alhambra, Cal., and a friend of mine, shot through the head at my side. Got a Dutchman through the stomach at the same time. Saw one of our party blow a big Prussian guard's head off at five paces a moment later.

"We made 12 kilometers by night then for eight days more the battle settled down to a slow grind that took 'bookoo' (excuse my French), or what in good American means, 'A whole lot of nerve.' On the morning of the ninth day our 'relief' laid down a big barrage. The Dutch laid down one at the same time for a counter-attack. Our company which was supposed to have gone off the line the night before was caught between the two. Oh, my! If Sherman could have only been there then. There were high explosives, liquid fire, gas, etc. I promised the angels that morning I'd be a good boy from then on if they'd only see me through. Well, I guess they decided to line up on my side for here I be. They didn't pull for a lot of our company though that morning. We were a lovely sight when we came off the line with soiled clothes, ten days' growth of beard, hollow-eyed, dirty-faced, ranks depleted, etc.

"Well, we rested two days in the woods, then marched back three days by easy stages to a town named Brabrant, near Rivigny. Stayed four days, got clean clothes, then took lovely French freight cars at Rivigny for Belgium passing through Chateau Thierry and suburbs of Paris, to Calais, then to Ypres (a total ruin), camped two days there, then across dreary No-Man's Land to Roulers, the Dutch retreating a few days ahead of us. We finally met up with them about ten days later and drove them out of a town and across a river. We kept on their trail until the signing of the armistice. Drove them across a canal and captured Audenarde, a goodly-sized town the day before, and were about to attack again when the good news came.

"Well, we won high compliments from our French commanders, both in France and Belgium, and were classified as first-class shock troops. A great many of our men received citations and French war crosses (Croix de Guerre). One of our sergeants received the Belgium cross and is the sergeant of the platoon I'm in. I've got the lofty rank of first-class private, which suits me very well. Wouldn't make a very good general, nohow.

"Well, spent Thanksgiving up near our last line near Ghent. Spent Christmas near the border at Watou, Belgium. Hope to spend my next in the States.

"Can't think of more to write now. Rumor has it that we get de-loused here soon,—that is getting rid of the 'itch' or cooties. Well, love to Ma and Pa and kids and little kids and aunts and all. Regards to inquiring friends.

"Love to all again.

"Yours affectionately,

"BEN, JR."
